PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
ENJOINING IMPLEMENTATION, ENFORCEMENT AND
EFFECTIVENESS OF UTAH SENATE
BILL NO. 3004

Case No. 2:06cv00624 TC

Judge Tena Campbell

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' Stipulated Motion for Preliminary Injunction, whereby the parties seek an Order preliminarily enjoining implementation and enforcement of Utah Senate Bill No. 3004, 2006 Utah Laws 3rd Sp. Sess. Ch. 4 (S.B. 3004), (the "Amendments") which modified the Utah Uniform Securities Act codified at Utah Code Annotated §§ 61-1-1 through 30 (the "Act"), and an Order permitting amendment of the Complaint. The Court having considered the materials submitted, and having determined that good cause appears for the entry of a preliminary injunction, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Amendments became effective on May 26, 2006, and the record keeping and reporting requirements and sanction provisions will take effect on October 1, 2006.
2. Once effective, those various recordkeeping and reporting requirements require that, in specified situations, broker-dealers (as defined by Utah Code Ann. § 61-1-13(1)(c)(i); 15 U.S.C. § 78c(a)(4) and (a)(5)) ("broker-dealers")) gather and report certain information whenever (i) the broker-dealer effects a sale or purchase of a "threshold security" (as defined in Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation SHO); (ii) the issuer of the threshold security is either domiciled or has its principal office in Utah; and (iii) the trade fails to settle within its normal settlement cycle ("Settlement Failure"). When that situation occurs, broker-dealers are required to provide the following information to the Utah Division of Securities (the "Division"): (i) the name of the issuer whose shares were the subject of the Settlement Failure; (ii) the date of the trade that failed to settle; (iii) the amount of the shares not delivered to settle the trade; and (iv) in the case of a selling broker-dealer, the identity of the broker-dealer's customer account or broker-dealer's own account for which the sale was executed; or (v) in the case of a broker-dealer purchasing the securities, the identity of the person that failed to deliver the security in settlement of the trade.

3. The Amendments would impose financial penalties on any broker-dealer that does not comply with its requirements and provides a private right of action to bring suit against a broker-dealer that fails to comply with the Amendments. Defendant Klein, in his official capacity as Director of the Division, is responsible for administration and enforcement of the Act, including the receipt of the reports that the Amendments require.

4. The implementation and enforcement of the Amendments are hereby preliminarily enjoined. Klein and his agents, employees, and attorneys, together with all persons in active concert or participation with them, are hereby restrained and enjoined from enforcing and/or putting into effect, in any way, the requirements of the Amendments now codified at Utah Code Ann. § 61-1-5(2)(d), including collecting and/or publishing any of the information that broker-dealers otherwise would be required to report pursuant to the Amendments. Until the expiration or revocation of this Order, SIA, its members and other broker-dealers regulated by the Act are relieved of the obligations imposed by the Amendments, including the requirement to make the above-described reports to the Division.

5. In the absence of a requirement to report information to the Division, the Amendments' penalty clauses and private right of action (which are triggered by a failure to comply with the Amendments' obligation to report) are also enjoined. The Amendments shall have no force or effect whatsoever and shall not be enforced against SIA, its members or any other person or entity, by Klein or any other party, person or entity, whether private or public for the duration of this Order.

6. Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 15(a), and based upon the parties' stipulated motion, the Complaint is amended to remove Counts II and IV and to limit the basis for SIA's preemption claims in Counts I and III to the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996. The Court grants SIA leave to further amend its Complaint to reassert the claims and bases removed by this Order, and to add any additional claims, at any time prior to July 1, 2007.

7. Neither party shall be required to post security as a condition of this preliminary injunction.

8. Unless extended by order of the Court, this preliminary injunction shall automatically expire without notice and be of no further force or effect at 12:01 a.m. (Mountain Daylight Time) on June 1, 2007.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 11th day of August 2006.

The Honorable Tena Campbell
United States District Court Judge
